UNOPPOSED MOTION TO EXTEND BRIEFING SCHEDULING ORDER

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW, the Plaintiff CANDICE MICHELLE HARDWICK ("Plaintiff"), to respectfully submit this Unopposed Motion to Extend Briefing Scheduling Order.

And would submit unto this Honorable Court the following:

Counsel for Defendants filed their "Reply" Brief on Friday, May 13, 2011. The Court's Order setting up the Briefing Schedule did not indicate if a final Rebuttal Brief would be allowed to Plaintiffs.

Plaintiff's counsel inquired of the court's case manager as to the appropriateness of a "Sur-Reply" Brief. The Case Manager informed counsel on May 19th that a Brief would be allowed but that if counsel needed more time (the Brief being due on Friday, May 20th) that he file for an Extension.

Plaintiff's counsel is still laboring under a truncated work schedule dealing with issues related to moving his elderly father and handicapped sister to North Carolina, as well as pending legal cases in Texas, and would therefore request a 20-day extension to file the Brief, which would then be due on June 9th, 2011.

Counsel for Defendant states he is unopposed to this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,
